

ELAINE DICKSON

READING OWLS INTERNATIONAL
Creating Readers... for Life

Elaine Dickson is Co-Founder and Director of Reading Owls International (Reading Owls), an organization working to effect structural change in education. Reading Owls imagines a world in which every child has the resources to help him or her succeed.

Prior to her current role, Elaine served as president of E2 Global Consultants, a finance and accounting firm providing consulting to senior level accounting and finance leaders. She has also held several management positions in banking and investment institutions.

Elaine graduated from the University of Massachusetts-Boston with a degree in Management, concentration in Accounting, and holds advanced degrees in Business and Journalism from Bentley University and Boston University, respectively.

In addition to Reading Owls, Elaine currently serves on the Governance committee of the Moses Brown School and most recently as Clerk (Chair) of Admissions and Enrollment and as a member of the Executive Committee and Board of Trustees (2013-2019).
