

MEET THE FOUNDERS

READING OWLS INTERNATIONAL
Creating Readers... for Life

Easton Dickson is currently Treasurer at Bain & Company, a leading management consulting company, and is based in their Boston office. Previously, he served as Corporate Treasurer at Rogers Corporation and managed global treasury operations with responsibilities for exposure management (currencies, interest rate, and commodities), M&A financing, capital structure management, global cash planning, pension asset & liability management and insurance risk management. Prior to joining Rogers Corporation, Easton spent seven years at the Boston Consulting Group as Treasury Supervisor with responsibility for currency risk management, cash management, global investments, insurance administration and treasury policy development. He graduated from the University of the West Indies with a B.S. in management studies (high honors). Easton also holds an MBA from Babson College, and a Masters in Taxation from Bentley University. He is an aspiring writer, enjoys running and watches virtually all major sports.

@thereadingowls

easton@readingowlsinternational.org

WWW.READINGOWLSINTERNATIONAL.ORG

readingowlsinternational