COMMUNICATION PLAN

Communicating Your Cause

- + Refine your message and be sure to PERSONALIZE your fundraising page with photos.
- + DONATE to your own campaign to show your commitment and inspire others.
- + Start with your CLOSE CONTACTS. Reach out to 10-15 people who you know are supportive of your goals. They should hear about your campaign first, in a personal message. The more personal your outreach is, the more likely they'll make a meaningful gift.

SAMPLE LETTER

Launch your page

Dear friend,

In 2015, 45% of Jamaican girls and 63% of boys in grades 1 through 3 were not proficient in reading. If these students do not receive effective interventions now, they are less likely to ever become grade-level readers.

Help me stamp out illiteracy by raising money for my Reading Owls campaign. ROI builds or supplements libraries in Jamaica so that kids have access to books.

All children deserve access to quality education, no matter where they were born or what resources they have. Every donation can make a difference. Thank you for your support!

Your Name

SOCIAL MEDIA

- 1 | Once you've demonstrated your personal commitment and gotten your closest contacts involved, officially launch your campaign on SOCIAL MEDIA.
- 2 | KEEP YOUR NETWORK UPDATED. Post on social media once a week, but vary your content. Rotate between thanking donors, updating them on progress you've made, talking about your passion for education and literacy and asking them to get involved.
- 3 | CONTINUE updating your network and following up with potential donors.
- 4 | It's important that not every message you communicate about your campaign is an ask for dollars. Tell a story about why ROI is important to you. Remind people why you've chosen to become a ROI Ambassador.

Dear friend,

Thank you for donating to my Reading Owls campaign. 100% of our money will help build libraries in Jamaica so that students can have access to high quality, culturally relevant books.

This has been an incredibly rewarding experience and I've learned so much about the impact of a quality education, which leads to greater opportunities and a better future.

I encourage you to get more involved with Reading Owls by subscribing to their quarterly newsletter, liking their Facebook page or maybe starting your own fundraising campaign..

Thank you for helping "create readers for life."
